1

340 RIVER ROAD, BEAVER

Darrell Borghi, Chef; Dennis Denkovich, Owner • Fairport Restaurant, Rochester

While adhering to the home's architectural integrity, an inspired addition created around the existing kitchen resulted in a real showstopper. Contrasting finishes on furniture-like cabinetry are unified by erratically patterned black granite counters and mixed-metal knobs and pulls. A pot filler presides over the six burner Bosch stovetop, and many clever storage options boost the efficiency of this tastefully designed kitchen.

Directions: Traveling from Rochester, turn left at the 2nd street, Wilson Avenue, to River Road. Your destination is the third house from the corner of Taylor Avenue and River Road.

2

912 RIVER ROAD, BEAVER

Brian Fyock, Chef/Owner • Ball Joint, Beaver Falls

A welcoming yet unpretentious kitchen/dining area works with great efficiency within a laid-back and comfortable ambience. Hickory cabinets and island surround are topped with granite in brown and blue tones. The work area is a curved configuration and includes stainless appliances and a corner sink. Gray ceramic flooring continues cohesively through the dining area where a brick fireplace adds to the cozy and relaxed appeal.

Directions: From House #1, continue on River Road for .4 mile.

3

48 NICHOLAS DRIVE, BARCLAY HILL ESTATES, BEAVER

Joe Zipparo, Chef/Owner • 424 Walnut, Sewickley

Sophisticated glamour unfolds upon entering this spacious patio home. The kitchen features expansive stark white cabinetry complemented with lightly patterned white Quartzite counters. Silver metallic glass accents used in the backsplash relate perfectly to the crystal prisms of the unexpected and glam chandelier. A strictly edited cool-white palette is punctuated with bold turquoise wall art and accessories.

Directions: At 3rd and Buffalo Streets, travel to traffic light at 4th Street. Turn left which becomes Tuscarawas Road and travel 4.3 miles to Barclay Hill Road. Turn left and continue to Barclay Hill Estates. Turn right on Nicholas Drive for .2 mile to #40 patio home on the right. To exit, drive around Stop sign and turn left to Tuscarawas Road.

4

107 QUAKER RIDGE, SEVEN OAKS

Emily Mallery, Owner • Edible Arrangements, Beaver

The Old Virginia exterior brick of this new home sets the prevailing attitude of New England Colonial ease in the design approach of the interior. A pale yellow and gentle green palette showcases the “pecan” stained cherry cabinetry, the “butterscotch” oak flooring, and the “ivory wave” quartz counters. The breakfast area is prudently placed before a bank of bay windows, drawing the eye to the glorious and lush views.

Directions: Turn left on Tuscarawas Road to Seven Oaks for 1.5 miles. Turn right and continue for .5 mile to Dano Street. Turn right, then right again on Congressional Lane. Park car and walk to home on Quaker Ridge.

5

127 FIRESTONE COURT, SEVEN OAKS

Gina Frantz, Chef/Owner • Café desAmis, Sewickley

The dramatic and stately impact of imposing black doors and wood trim is echoed within this inspired kitchen design. Generous crown molding and upper cabinetry are finished in a glazed cream tone, contrasting with the rich walnut stain of the alder wood base cabinets. The bold black motif reappears in the formidable range hood and island surround. A magnificent oval light fixture of intricately crafted metal adds an artisan touch, while the dynamic three-toned granite completes the elegant exuberance.

Directions: In same neighborhood, walk to home on corner of Firestone Court.

DUTCH RIDGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

2220 Dutch Ridge Rd., Beaver, PA

Directions: Travel back to Tuscarawas Road and continue 2.7 miles to Stop sign at the intersection of Tuscarawas and Sebring Road. Turn left to Rt. 376 and continue to Dutch Ridge Road. At Stop sign, turn right and continue for 1.3 miles to another Stop sign. Turn right for another 1.4 miles. School is on the left. Dutch Ridge Road from this point to the Court House is 2.7 miles.
